From A Missing Link Theatre Company (AMLTC), the theatre company that brought A Closer Walk With Patsy Cline & A Really Retro Christmas Special to London in 2012.

We have BIG NEWS!! 2013 marks the 30th anniversary of Norm Foster's career as a playwright! AMLTC helps celebrate this milestone with a World Premiere of his newest comedy, The Great Kooshog Lake Hollis McCauley Fishing Derby.

“When Investment banker James Bell's car breaks down near the sleepy town of Kooshog Lake, he finds himself in the thick of one of the most competitive fishing derbies known to man. People come from miles around to catch one fish, a fish that has eluded capture for over twenty years. The Great Kooshog Lake Hollis McCauley Fishing Derby is the story of love, laughter and history in a small forgotten town. You will be hooked”

We've put together an exceptional company of professional artists to perform this funny and heartwarming play. AMLTC welcomes back Dwayne Adams* in the role of James Bell; you'll remember him as the DJ and Comics in A Closer Walk With Patsy Cline. The show also features the extraordinary talents of Londoners, Julia Webb, Martha Zimmerman*, John Turner* and Rachel Jones*. The show is directed by Rick Kish* and stage managed by Lani Martel*, with set design by Eric Bunnell, costumes by Dariusz Korbiel and lighting by Karen Crichton, and with an original sound design by Randy Rektor and Alex Baerg of Studio B Music Services.

The show runs April 23 - May 4th (15 shows) at The London Convention Centre Theatre. Tickets are $15.00 (previews) - $25.00 (regular performances) (+hst) and are available by calling the Grand Theatre Box Office @ 519-672-8800 or online at www.grandtheatre.com. Opening Night is Thursday, April 25th. See promo cards for more detailed information.
